

Title IX Compliance & Safety Commitment

- At the Rescue Ready Safety Association, we are firmly dedicated to upholding a safe, respectful, and inclusive learning and working environment. We want all team members to know that any Title IX violations, whether involving staff or students, will be met with thorough and immediate action from our management team. We take these matters seriously and are committed to addressing and resolving them swiftly to maintain a safe space for everyone
- In the event that a student in one of your courses commits a Title IX violation, you are required to immediately report the incident to management. Such students will be removed from the course without a refund. Additionally, any staff member found in violation of Title IX will face immediate termination from their role.
- RRSA is fully committed to working with law enforcement to pursue penalties to the fullest extent permitted by law.
